one of the most twisted tales you will ever read a story of cannibal fetishes a terrified wife lying fbi agents a false conviction patrick quinlan los angeles times bestselling author optioned in february 2019 for a motion picture raw deal is the untold story of former new york city police officer gil valle who in 2012 became known throughout the world as the cannibal cop it is part the controversial saga of a man who was imprisoned for thought crimes and a look into a world of dark sexuality and violence that most readers don t know exists except maybe in their nightmares after valle s arrest media coverage exploded in a frenzy of lurid tabloid headlines and stories about the cop charged with planning to kidnap torture rape and eat women including his own wife but here s the fascinating part there was no such plan in reality valle faced life in prison for his charges and served 21 months for nothing more than having online chats about his fantasies he was finally exonerated of all charges raw deal raises the question of when does thought become a crime a question that goes beyond his perverse sexuality to answers society must deal with in order to meet the challenge of terrorism it will challenge the reader s beliefs about free speech the right to privacy and government s role in watching over us warning this book contains graphic fantasy material of a sexual and violent nature it is intended for mature audiences a big part of what makes this book fascinating is seeing the contrast between valle s extreme interests and his normal life cultured vultures

the true story of drugs and corruption in brooklyn s 75th precinct as told by a cop who lived it a journalist and an edgar award winning author they had no fear of the cops because they were the cops nypd officers mike dowd and kenny eurell knew there were two ways to get rich quick in the seven five you either became drug dealers or you robbed drug dealers they decided to do both dowd and eurell ran the most powerful gang in east new york s dangerous 75th precinct the crack cocaine capital of 1980s america these cocaine cops formed a lucrative alliance with adam diaz the kingpin of an ever expanding dominican drug cartel soon mike and ken were buying fancy cars no cop could afford and treating their wives to levels of luxury not associated with a patrol officer's salary they were daring dangerous and untouchable until the biggest police scandal in new york history exploded into the headlines with the arrest of mike ken and their fellow crooked cops released on bail mike offered ken a long shot at escape to central america a bizarre plan involving robbery kidnapping and murder forcing ken to choose between two forms of betrayal when you lie you steal the truth once you have stolen the truth you can justify stealing anything from anybody adapted from ken eurell's personal memoirs of the time plus hundreds of hours of exclusive interviews with the major players including adam diaz and dori eurell this book reveals the truth behind the documentary the seven five edgar award winner burl barer once again teams with award winning journalist frank c girardot jr and eurell to bring you an astonishing story of greed and betrayal true crime garage podcast recommended reading the bizarre story of elliot rodger prepare to have your mind blown patrick quinlan bestselling author of smoked this is the story of elliot rodger and how he turned from a nice quiet polite young man to the first self identified incel involuntarily celibate killer elliot rodger considered himself to be intelligent refined handsome fashionable and charming he spent years trying to be cool so women would like him he thought if he just wore expensive and fashionable clothing had a better car or if he were rich then women would throw themselves at him in fact he thought himself to be the supreme gentleman yet women paid no attention to him his only conclusion was that they were genetically flawed and because of this they ignored him and threw themselves at men who were ignorant savage brutes in his mind his lack of success with women had ruined his life he began to psychologically deteriorate rodger decided to get revenge he spent months planning his day of retribution an act where he would kill as many attractive women and the type of men that they were drawn to as he could in a savage attack then he acted on his plan killing 6 people and wounding numerous others in what became known as the isla vista massacre the story does not end with rodger however as numerous other incels have since committed copycat attacks one man details his unusual friendship with the genesee river killer and examines what separates everyday people from serial killers what happens when one of the evilest men in the history of america meets a man he trusts to share his darkest secrets with how does it affect someone already on the edge of society when he is taken under the wing of a serial killer partly told through the letters of arthur shawcross the shawcross letters is the tale of one of america's most notorious serial killers and his relationship with his would be biographer john paul fay john paul fay was a murderabilia dealer with a troubled past arthur shawcross also known as the genesee river killer was in prison after being convicted of murdering numerous women he officially has killed 14 people in all the two created a business relationship with fay shopping the drawings of shawcross and working with him on a book of his life they also created a bizarre friendship in which shawcross would let out his darkest secrets and fay would finally meet someone that he himself felt oddly at home with but as we all know be careful what you wish for you just might get it the shawcross letters is a unique book it is not only literary but it lets the reader into the mind of a serial killer in a way that few books have ever done before the reader will be drawn into the mind of shawcross through his letters and will find themselves wondering what actually separates a serial killer from someone that walks among us every day warning contains extremely graphic material including descriptions of rape murder and cannibalism praise for the shawcross letters the shawcross letters is a graphic and dramatic page turner that delves into the twisted mind of a serial killer a true crime book that will horrify enlighten and keep you up at night joseph souza author of the perfect daughter as frighteningly real as it gets not for the faint of heart patrick quinlan los angeles times bestselling author of smoked and the hit a unique and fascinating look at the genesee river killer both despite and partially because the killer himself is only secondary instead it examines what the line between the average person and a psychopath entails and the psychology of the fascination with serial killers ben arzate cultured vultures an examination of our many modes of online identity and how we live on the continuum between the virtual and the real hello avatar or llsay o hello avatar is a tiny piece of user friendly code that allows us to program our virtual selves in hello avatar b coleman examines a crucial aspect of our cultural shift from analog to digital the continuum between online and off what she calls the x reality that crosses between the virtual and the real she looks at the emergence of a world that is neither virtual nor real but encompasses a multiplicity of network combinations and she argues that it is the role of the avatar to help us express our new agency our new power to customize our networked life by avatar coleman means not just the animated figures that populate our screens but the gestalt of images text and multimedia that make up our online identities in virtual worlds like second life and in the form of email video chat and other digital artifacts exploring such network activities as embodiment extreme virtual violence and the work in virtual reality labs and offering sidebar interviews with designers and practitioners she argues that what is new is real time collaboration and copresence the way we make connections using networked media and the cultures we have created around this the star of this drama of expanded horizons is the networked subject all of us who represent aspects of ourselves and our work across the mediascape
